ENTERING

There are two entrances to the theatre, both of which are at the front of the building on Danforth Avenue. The first door on the west side has a push-to-open button and the second does not. Both lead into the main space and to the box office.

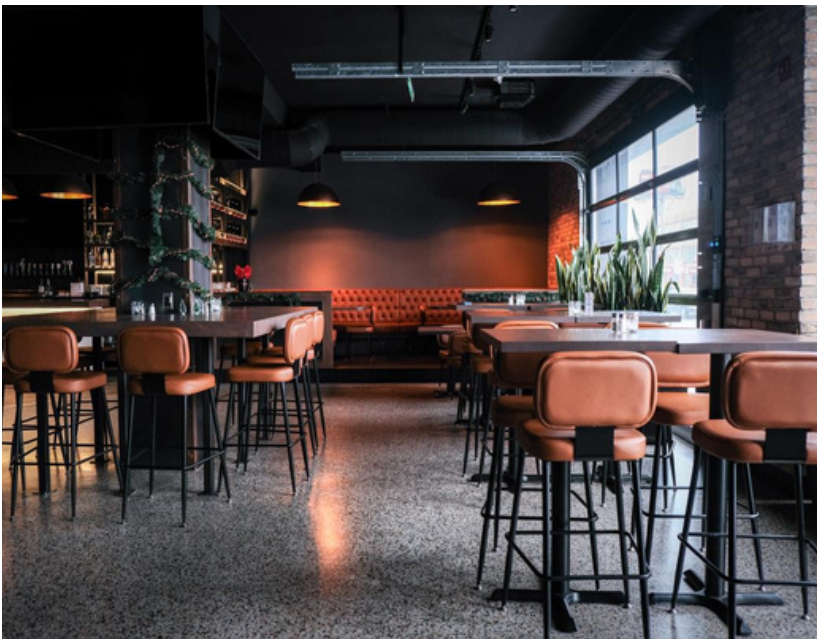

BOX OFFICE

As soon as you enter, the box office window will be to your left. This is where you can pick up your tickets if you need to. If you already have your tickets, you can head to your right into the main bar and restaurant space and towards the theatre.

THE BAR & RESTAURANT

To the right of the entrance and past the box office is the bar and restaurant area where you are more than welcome to grab a drink or snack which you can take into the theatre. If you head to the very end of the bar, you will find the washrooms and lineup area to enter the theatre.

ENTERING THE THEATRE

At the end of the bar you will find a hallway where the audience will line up prior to the show. There will be staff and volunteers present throughout the space and at the podium to assist you should you require advanced entry for access (accessible seating, being close to the stage or interpreters, etc.).

THE THEATRE

When you enter the space, the stage will be to your right and the audience to your left. There is an array of seating options including standalone seats without arms, stools at tables, and benches or banquettes with small tables.

WASHROOMS

The washrooms are located past the bar and to the right of the lineup area. There are accessible washrooms with push-to-open buttons, grab bars, and emergency buttons, as well as gender neutral washrooms.
